People who travel a lot may find value in the following travel tips. Arrive at the airport at least one hour before your flight is scheduled to depart. Many airlines board passengers half an hour before the flight is scheduled to depart. Passengers who arrive late may find that their seats were given away. When you check baggage put your business name and address on each bag. You should lock each bag to prevent it from opening when it is thrown on and off the planes and the luggage carts. Items that you may want with you, such as medicine, jewelry and cameras, should be carried with you onboard. Since forty percent of lost baggage occurs when travelers change flights or change airlines try to take direct flights. As soon as the plane lands at your final destination go immediately to the baggage claim area to claim your luggage. If you want to identify your luggage quickly mark your luggage in a special way. A colored ribbon that is easy to see will help you distinguish your luggage from all the rest.
