

Worksheet 2: Dependent Clauses 2 Name _____ Date _____

Highlight the dependent clauses in each sentence. Underline the subjects and the verbs in the dependent and the independent clauses. Add any missing punctuation.

1. Joe made the offer to his assistant whose office was right next door.
2. The FAA inspected all of the planes that were manufactured in 1989.
3. The winner of the essay contest who wrote about justice won $500.
4. The antique desk that you bought at the auction is a beautiful piece of furniture.
5. Four helicopter mechanics who received their training in the Army now work for a private helicopter rescue company.
6. Jan Elliot who is the cartoonist of Stone Soup lives in my hometown.
7. Several junior high students visit the nursing home where fifty-two senior citizens reside.
8. The old barn on Cave Junction Road is full of old radios that no longer work.
9. I found the spearheads on an Internet site where owners auction a wide variety of items.
10. Marcus who is an athletic trainer developed a special conditioning program for me.
11. The pages that Professor Wang wrote on the board are not the correct pages for this assignment.
12. Our student lounge area which is often empty needs new furniture and more ambiance.
13. The majority of our students support funding that provides childcare for students with preschool children.
14. Dorm living which offers little privacy is the best way to cultivate new friendships.
15. Sweaty palms a flushed face and shaky knees are indicators that a speaker is nervous.